

BOSTON CHINESE PHOTOGRAPHY ASSOCIATION (BCPA)

The Boston Chinese Photography Association (BCPA) was established in August 2009 in the historic and culturally rich city of Boston, home to many world-class universities and top-tier enterprises. BCPA boasts numerous accomplished photographers and hundreds of photography enthusiasts. The association is led by one president, two vice presidents, seven standing committee members, and a board of seven directors. It is registered as a non-profit organization.

OUR MISSION:

Our mission is to provide a social platform for our members to share their interest in photography, improve their skills, and enhance their artistic cultivation and aesthetic expression.

OUR VISION:

Our vision is to capture the unforgettable moments of nature, people, culture and tradition.

OUR VALUE STANDARD TO PROMOTE:

Community building | Cultural exchange | Environmental awareness

OUR REGULAR ACTIVITIES INCLUDE:

Lectures, photography technique explanations, thematic photography, indoor photography, and outdoor photography trips. We also provide photography services to the Greater Boston area's communities and organizations. We maintain long-term exchanges and collaborations with photography groups in the United States, China, and Canada, and have a wide influence in North America.
